FISTS FLY AS STRIKES PILE UP IN BELGIUM

BRUSSELS (Reuters)—A fist-fight between Socialist and Roman Catholic legislators broke out in the Lower House of Parliament tonight as deputies debated a mounting wave of strikes against the Belgian government's austerity plans. The fight soon involved nearly all the deputies present.

Meanwhile an anti-austerity strike continued to spread.

PAY HIKE FOR FORCES

$1.6 Billion for Defence

By DAVE McINTOSH, Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP)—The 1961-62 defence budget will amount to about $1,600,000,000, reliable informants said today.

Defence expenditures, in other words, will be about the same as in the current fiscal year which ends March 31, 1961. The 1960-61 defence budget is $1,596,000,000.

Spending on defence takes up about one-quarter of all federal outlays.

The treasury board, a cabinet committee, has approved the defence budget but it had a difficult time keeping it at the 1960-61 level.

Main reason for this is that $150,000,000 had to be found for the CF-104 reconnaissance bomber program in 1961-62, double the amount required in the current fiscal year.

Pay increases for the armed forces will cost about $40,000,000 and spending will rise on the $120,000,000 program to provide two Bomarc anti-aircraft missiles bases, new radars and the SAGE electronic control system for air defence.

Informants said savings will have to be made in armed forces operations and maintenance to leave funds for new weapons.

RCAF BANS TRANSISTORS

OTTAWA (CP)—The RCAF has barred carriage of transistor radios by aircar or passengers in any of its aircraft, an air force spokesman said today.

Such radios, when in operation, can interfere with flight instruments, the spokesman said.

TORONTO (CP)—A Trans-Canada Air Lines spokesman said today passengers are requested not to play tiny transistor pocket radios aboard his company's aircraft.

'Maverick' Tory Member Resigns Seat

CAMPBELLTON, N.B. (CP)—J. C. Van Horne said in a statement here today he has resigned the Restigouche-Madawaska seat he has held as a Progressive Conservative in the Commons since 1955.

He said the resignation, effected last Tuesday, was made in a letter to Prime Minister Diefenbaker and delivered to the prime minister's secretary today.

Both sides of the Campbellton-Cross Pt. bridge were joined across the Restigouche yesterday. In keeping, therefore, with an expressed undertaking made to my constituents some five years ago I hereby resign as a member of this House.

"With sincerest best wishes and kindest personal regards."

The reference was to a bridge spanning the Restigouche River between here and Cross Point, Que.

The 39-year-old Campbellton lawyer had a prominent part in efforts to obtain the bridge. He was first elected to the Commons in a 1955 by-election, ending a 22-year Liberal hold on Restigouche-Madawaska.

He became known as the "Maverick Tory" for attacks on policies of his own party.

"If I am not here," said the naval chap, RCN for 12 years, "my chum will do it. We feel strongly about the whole thing. If something happens to him, we'll hire another person to do the job."

"We guarantee it. This way somebody gets their money's worth and donates to a good cause also."

The naval rating said he had been "around" and seen the suffering in India, together with other places in the East. This is why, he said, the offer had been made.

He and his friends drew lots to approach the Times. Navy man lost, so he was elected.

All money has gone to the children — last year to an orphanage in Korea; previously to eradicate sufferings of youngsters in Hong Kong.

The money mends disease-ridden little bodies, and guarantees a fuller, happier life.

India has millions of children. We can help only a few.

But this assistance is likened to a candle where there is no light at all.

This year they have given

BETHLEHEM PILGRIMS MET BY JOY, SORROW

JERUSALEM, Jordan (UPI)—Tears of joy mingled with those of sorrow today while the first 2,500 Christian pilgrims moved through the Mandlebaum Gate from Israel to celebrate Christmas in Bethlehem, the birthplace of Christ.

Those who made it were the joyful ones. Those who were turned back by Israeli and Jordanian security guards were not.

Not many were turned away, but there were several who were halted after being searched on both sides of the border by guards looking for smugglers.

Ready to Improve U.S. Relations After Kennedy Sworn In—Gromyko

MOSCOW (AP)—Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko said today the Soviet Union is ready to improve its relations with the United States following the inauguration of President-Elect Kennedy.

Gromyko told the Supreme Soviet parliament that his government hopes U.S.-Soviet relations after Kennedy's inauguration will revert to the state they were in during the administration of Franklin D. Roosevelt—a hope expressed by Premier Khrushchev in a cable last month congratulating Kennedy on his victory.

"I am authorized to state that on the part of the Soviet government there is full readiness to promote the all-around betterment of Soviet-American relations," he said.

KHRUSHCHEV SILENT

An expected foreign policy speech by Khrushchev did not take place and the session ended following unanimous approval of the government's foreign policy.

Gromyko gave no indication that Soviet policy would be modified to improve relations with the United States.

Once more he blamed the "Eisenhower-Nixon administration" for the present state of U.S.-Soviet relations and the failure of the Paris summit conference.

He called again for a special summit session of the United Nations General Assembly in the spring on disarmament and attacked the Western powers as "opponents not only of disarmament but also of control over disarmament."

Gromyko called for "putting in order the structure of the United Nations bodies," a reference to the Soviet demand that Secretary Dag Hammarskjold's control of the UN secretariat be replaced by a Communist—Western—neutralist triumvirate.

Points made by Gromyko included:

The Soviet government fully supports Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah's proposal to bar nuclear weapons, nuclear weapon tests and foreign military bases from Africa.

Andy thought it funny then. But today he was singing a different tune.

"I've given up hope of getting back for Christmas. But I have just got to get back for school, Jan. 3."

WAUKESHA, Ill.—Commercial fisherman Mathew Kyritis last fall studied the habits of Lake Michigan perch and came up with the prediction that it would be a mild winter.

Thursday, newsmen decided to ask him to explain the sub-zero cold wave which gripped the area in the wake of a deep day before winter snowfall. They were told he already had left for a cruise in the Caribbean.

LONDON — Sir Winston Churchill, obviously recovered from a fall in which he broke a bone in his back five weeks ago, left town today for his traditional Christmas holiday at Chartwell, Kent.

With his wife Clemmie, and smoking a cigar, Sir Winston departed by motor car on a 35-mile ride to preside over family festivities.

ON POWERSCHMES

Ample Precedent — Fulton

OTTAWA — Justice Minister Davie Fulton said Thursday there is ample precedent for the federal government to maintain some guarantees over such projects as the Columbia River power scheme in B.C.

He cited the international St. Lawrence Seaway power development as an example. While there was no treaty, the hydro output was operated by Ontario with the federal government reserving the right in case of an Ontario breach to move in. Ontario freely gave that right.

Ontario had no representation on the Canada-U.S. board set up to control the seaway power operation, he said. Yet the federal government had offered B.C. representation on a board which would do the same thing on the Columbia.

OBLIGATIONS

The federal government has to have agreement with B.C. on its relationships so that it can discharge obligations under the treaty, Mr. Fulton repeated.

Agreement on the financing of the Canadian project was another matter if B.C. wanted it that way, although he hoped it wouldn't.

Settling finances needn't hold up a treaty, however.

CHEAPEST POWER

He referred to the Peace River development plans, a ratio to those of the Columbia, and said Columbia power will continue for many years to be the cheapest source available in B.C.

Power returned from U.S. generators as rent on Canadian stored water would be laid down at about 3.77 mills and total utilization of the Columbia, costing $1,500,000,000 for installation of generators on the Canadian side at various points, would produce power costing about four mills at consumption areas. This figure would include the American power returned to B.C.

Cost of Peace power at Vancouver has been estimated at six mills.

Estimates with which B.C. seems to agree show that total utilization of the Columbia would cover B.C. needs for 20 to 25 years and perhaps longer, Mr. Fulton said.

Altorjai, accused of wielding an axe, was remanded to Dec. 29. At his first appearance this week he was without counsel but had the benefit of an interpreter.

Fleming To Meet Bennett

Columbia Talks Set For Early Next Year

Premier W. A. C. Bennett said Thursday he will meet Finance Minister Donald Fleming early next year to discuss financing the Columbia River power scheme.

The premier accepted Mr. Fleming's offer for the first official face-to-face discussion of differences on how to raise the $458,000,000 needed for the big project.

Earlier he had dodged Justice Minister E. Davie Fulton in Victoria, insisting he deal only with the federal finance minister.

"I shall be prepared to meet him at an agreed time in an agreed place early next year," Premier Bennett said in Vancouver Thursday night.

GOING HOME

Mr. Bennett leaves Vancouver today for Kelowna where he will spend Christmas and New Year's holidays.

The federal government's attitude is that there are "misunderstandings" between B.C. and Ottawa.

Mr. Bennett has formally turned down a federal offer to "invest" $172,000,000 in the project on the basis of repayment through revenue.

This amount is about half the estimated cost of three dams at Mica Creek, Arrow and Duncan lakes.

There was no federal offer to help pay the way for transmission lines.

It appeared likely that the meeting will precede further federal-B.C. talks scheduled in Ottawa Jan. 3 and 4 before final treaty negotiations with the United States take place Jan. 5 and 6 in Ottawa.

Mr. Fleming's letter echoed his public statements, expressing regret that Mr. Bennett had rejected the $172,000,000 loan. That offer was "extraordinarily generous," said the letter, and "I trust that your rejection may have been due to a misunderstanding of the nature and effect of the offer."

A personal meeting was proposed to "remove any misunderstandings."

Hearing Set On Remarks By Lawyer

Mayor Percy Scurrah may have to use his power to issue a summons as chairman of the police commission for the first time next month.

City police commission Thursday decided to hold an open hearing in January into remarks made by lawyer David Hummel on police methods to which the police men's union has objected.

Mr. Hummel, in reply to the union's objections previously indicated he was not interested in appearing before the commission so the union asked that he be summoned to the hearing if necessary.

If a summons is issued, it is expected to establish a "first" in the commission's history.

$150 Fine For Assault On Woman

A Saanich man was fined $150 in Saanich police court Thursday for what Magistrate William Oster termed "a brutal and cowardly attack on a woman."

Fined was Richard Frederick Kendall, 838 Devonshire, who pleaded guilty Tuesday to an assault on Mrs. Roberta Clair Kaye causing her bodily harm.

"No matter what the situation, you had no right to strike this woman," the magistrate told Kendall. "I hope you are thoroughly ashamed of yourself."

He ordered that Kendall be bound over in the sum of $500—on his own recognition—to keep the peace for six months, particularly towards Mrs. Kaye.

Mrs. Kaye had said accused struck her during an argument after a dance Saturday night. She had tried to stop Kendall arguing with his wife, she said.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind. (AP)—A fire caused by a bottle of gasoline dropped near a stove late Thursday night killed a mother and four of her nine children and burned three others, two critically.

HOW'S TERRY?

Dying Victim's Last Concern

NEW YORK (AP)—He was getting along in years. And he moved slowly, and couldn't see too well.

His name was Terry. He was an elderly cocker spaniel.

And when Terry's master, Dr. Jacob Krooks, 64, a dentist, picked up the dog's leash last Friday morning, the animal yelped with delight. It meant a trip outdoors.

The day was blustery, that morning in Brooklyn. And while Krooks donned overcoat and hat, Terry — stubby tail wagging furiously — waited impatiently. Then master and dog walked out into the morning — to meet death.

Because as they neared Sterling Place and Seventh Avenue, a jet airliner that only moments before had collided with another aircraft in a one-in-a-million accident crashed into the quiet residential neighborhood.

Flaming jet fuel sprayed the area. Dr. Krooks was burned over more than half his body. He was taken to hospital in critical condition.

Terry? Only his leash was found. Over and over in Jewish Hospital, Dr. Krooks inquired: "How is Terry? Where is he? Have you got Terry?"

A family member said they stalled the doctor, never letting him know the dog was missing. Thursday Dr. Krooks died, becoming the 136th victim of history's worst aviation disaster.

CAUSE OF CRASH?

Transistor Radios In Plane Wreckage

NEW YORK (UPI)—Two transistor radios were found in the wreckage of the United Air Lines DC-8 jet that crashed into a Brooklyn street after colliding with another plane last Friday, police disclosed today.

Discovery of the radios—one in "fairly good" condition and the other battered—followed reports that such a radio might have affected the jet's navigational instruments.

Police said it was impossible to tell whether either radio had been turned on during the flight, as both had been handled by "dozens of people" since they were found.

It means all the radios on board the plane were probably destroyed in the crash.

Toward Higher Tariffs

THE MOST LASTING EFFECTS of Mr. Fleming's recent budget probably will not come from his financial policies but from his plan to raise the Canadian tariff.

While the tariff is not directly raised—for that might be too difficult politically at the moment—it will rise indirectly, and with little delay. No less than 75 import items, by Mr. Fleming's own count, are within the broad sweep of his latest tariff "definitions."

By a subtle manoeuvre the Government merely changes the definition of goods "of a class or kind not made or produced in Canada." Up to now such goods, since they do not compete with any Canadian product, have entered this country at customs rates much less than those imposed on goods of a kind made here. But now the government takes power to levy the higher duties on foreign goods which are "approximately the same" as those produced in Canada.

In addition, imported industrial machinery will pay the higher duties even if no machinery of the same sort is made here. The government has merely to satisfy itself that Canada possesses the installed capacity and technical knowledge to produce such goods. If they can be produced here then they may be compelled to pay the higher duties. The burden of proving that they cannot be produced here is placed on the importer.

All this means a return to protectionism on a wide front but without the judgment of Parliament. Though the tariff is nothing but a tax, and though Parliament's most basic right is to levy all taxes, the Government will levy them in many cases by a system of ministerial discretion—the same Government which has always considered itself the only reliable champion of Parliament.

In the past goods were not con-

First Step on Medical Insurance

MR. DIEFENBAKER'S ANNOUNCEMENT of plans for a royal commission to explore medical insurance leaves one clear inference: The Government is considering entry into this field of national health legislation.

It is conceivable, but most unlikely, that a commission's investigations might reveal the country unprepared for this development. More probably, the inquiries will show people of all political persuasions favorably disposed in principle but doubtful about details and costs since medical insurance would be, for Canada, a gigantic experiment bristling with difficulty.

Under these circumstances, appointment of a commission is highly desirable. It can perform useful studies to determine basic facts connected with health insurance. These would include not only what type of program is best suited for the country, but also what could be done toward inaugurating a desirable system and how much it would cost.

Studies on the subject will, of course, involve investigation of plans already in operation—and the changes in prospect for them—as well as adaptations which might be made to create a system applicable to Canada and to the different parts of Canada.

Mr. Green Faces Up to Realities

EXTERNAL AFFAIRS MINISTER Green has of late been increasingly critical of Canada's European allies in regard to their attitude on the colonial question, particularly in The Congo. He made it very plain in the recent NATO meeting that he takes a poor view of their posture in the United Nations. And he has castigated unnamed UN members for their lack of courage in supporting disarmament measures.

Mr. Green has not spared Britain in his criticisms of NATO members who appear to consider the group a fortress into which they should retire, rather than trying to make NATO and the UN work.

These are the innocent, bewildered victims of forces far beyond their control and understanding. They do not comprehend the benefit of "independence" that has come to their country, they do not grasp the importance of the personal rivalries that have stalemated all attempts to govern the land. They know only that they are hungry, and that there is no food. They know only that they are dying. They do not even know that with them dies a part of the world.

WHILE THE DIPLOMATS

argue about a policy for the Congo, and the United Nations mission seeks some way of establishing order without infringing national rights, and the world wonders if the dangerous situation may develop into a full-scale East-West struggle, few may have noticed the news items which gave another view of the Congo tragedy.

FROM WASHINGTON

By JOSEPH ALSOP

Europe Waits for Kennedy

IT was both a disheartening and an oddly stirring experience to test the atmosphere on the other side of the Atlantic after the American election, as this reporter has just been doing. It was disheartening because the test revealed, for the first time, the full extent of the alarming loss of ground by the United States in the last eight years. While officials and politicians in the other capitals of the Western alliance still had to count on doing business with the Eisenhower administration, they did not speak frankly to vagrant reporters. Now they do.

Alsop

Their verdict on America's recent leadership of the West, whether it be just or unjust, is certainly cruel. The President's moral virtues of course continue to be respected. But that is about all there is on the favorable side of the balance sheet, except perhaps in the case of some British officials who reflect the personal views of Prime Minister Macmillan.

"A vacuum of leadership when only America could lead," is the thing most complained about. After this comes "the difficulty of finding anyone" in Washington you could talk to."

In the Allied capitals, in fact, the American government of these last years is thought to have been feeble, unimaginative, and sadly deficient in men of first class ability with whom great issues could be effectively thrashed out.

Earned Admiration

The one man President-elect Kennedy has kept on. Under Secretary of State Douglas Dillon, is the one Eisenhower policy-maker who has earned the kind of universal, enthusiastic admiration abroad that was given, in the old days, to such figures as Robert A. Lovett and John J. McCloy.

Secretary of State Herter and Secretary of Defence Gates are also admired and respected, though somewhat less widely; and there the human credits end.

The debits include a good many

Eisenhower policy-makers who have simply become public laughing stocks.

If this estimate of recent American performance is depressing, and perhaps unfair, it is at least balanced by our allies' hopes for American performance in the time ahead. These hopes are stirring to any American with natural pride. Yet they are, quite frankly, fairly desperate.

The tangle of critical problems Kennedy will inherit from Eisenhower is downright appalling. His leadership will be particularly hampered by the long neglected, then hysterically ventilated problem of the balance of payments.

Wealth is what gives America authority, and the balance of payments problem therefore tends to undermine American authority. Yet Kennedy has the ball at his feet, as far as the Western alliance goes, if he only knows how to kick it hard and fast.

Unannounced Attack

The Times is to be congratulated on its editorial entitled "Hanging By a Hair" in its Dec. 9th issue.

How extremely slender "the hair that binds us to survival" is disclosed in the Times, Dec. 12th editorial referring to the prevailing American militarist advocacy of preparation for a "pre-emptive strike" immediately before a potential enemy attack.

Twice already, because of technical error, nuclear war via American pre-emptive strike, has trembled "on the brink"—recently, and some time ago, as reported by General Lee May—mentioned in Albert Schweitzer's book, "Peace or Atomic War."

Obviously, because of its very nature, this proposed pre-emptive strike, or any pre-emptive strike, cannot afford to wait for exact evidence of enemy intention. It must launch its rockets on the assumption of enemy attack and of course, that assumption may be a mistaken one.

On this basis, couldn't Japan have called her Pearl Harbor attack a pre-emptive strike, on the assumption or excuse, of expected American attack?

Isn't Canada acquiescing in this policy of unannounced nuclear attack by continuing her military alliance with a country in which such proposal is being seriously considered in high quarters?

JOHN MCNAUGHTON.

Pressing Down Lid?

Mr. Eisenhower excelled himself in irony recently when he announced that he had ordered patrolling of the Caribbean coast of Central America "for the protection of the free world." Anyone who is informed on economic and political conditions in those small Latin nations, knows that most of their unfortunate peoples have been kept in appalling poverty and ignorance under triumvirates of the landowner, the army general, and the priest. They eke out an existence growing coffee and bananas on what the American octopus, United Fruit, regards as its special preserve.

Regardless of who is going to help them, or refrain from helping them, to throw off their shackles, they are going to boil over sooner or later.

As early as the fourth century B.C. Aristotle pointed out that "poverty is the parent of revolution and crime."

Perhaps the Democratic president of 1962 will have some of the Jeffersonian spirit, and will understand that the use of the big stick in trying to keep oppressed under heel is about as sensible as trying to keep the stew from boiling over on the kitchen stove by pushing down on the lid instead of turning off the heat.

DVA Protection Adequate

In reply to the letter in the Times of Dec. 14 entitled "DVA Hospital Fire Problem," and signed John Doe, which criticizes fire prevention and evacuation methods adopted by the hospital staff and also the means of egress from the building in an emergency. As I am Fire Chief of the area in which the Veterans'

Hospital is situated and as my name was mentioned in the letter, I feel it my duty to answer this criticism.

This department inspects this hospital periodically and we have always found the staff most efficient and their co-operation with this department excellent. We also witness fire drills as mentioned in the letter and find them most satisfactory. When this building was erected plans were submitted to the Provincial and Federal fire authorities approved by them. It was mentioned in the letter that wheelchair patients could not be evacuated as there were no ramps. As John Doe may or may not realize, wheelchair patients do not necessarily need to be evacuated in the wheelchair and the staff are quite competent to handle this situation.

The Saanich Fire Department at all times make inspections of all hospitals, nursing homes, homes for the aged, etc., and anything that can be done to improve the safety of the patients is recommended and orders are issued if considered necessary.

We consider the construction of this building to be of the best, and the total number of fire extinguishers, standpipes, hose and other fire fighting equipment in the hospital to be adequate. We also consider exits and passageways that were approved by the Provincial and Federal authorities are adequate and meet all the requirements of the regulations. Therefore I feel this criticism is unwarranted and has done an injustice to the staff whom we consider well trained and efficient to handle any emergency that might occur in the hospital.

'Cheating Our Youngsters'

As a parent of three teenagers in Junior High School I wish I had read earlier this article decrying the fact that "From kindergarten up to college —A policy of too much play and too little work is cheating our youngsters of a proper education."

A Grade 1 boy says: "Why do I have to go to school? I've got crayons at home" and the parents' note is "Brian is bored and fed up with the whole silly business."

What assinine idiot escaped from a home for feeble-minded has been allowed to write the textbooks for our primary grades in school? Silly nonsense is being forced on our small children, most of whom really want to learn something sensible from the first day in school.

My own child returned from his first day in Grade 1 in tears. "We didn't learn anything, we only played all day." And now nine years later I'll quote again from the article:

"By providing a curriculum devoid of stress or strain, the elementary school leaves the children without any idea of how to work, or how to study.

"High school teachers complain unanimously that their most time-consuming chore is in trying to instill into students of 14 and 15 the good study habits they could have picked up easily when they were five and six."

Teachers claim they must teach the prescribed course. School boards claim they have no say in the matter. Provincial departments of education state they are not responsible for this horrible mess of primary education.

Who then is responsible? And who can change it?

I entreat all parents of small children to start an uproar for a change in this vicious system before the lives of their youngsters be ruined forever.

AND CRICKET, TOO!

British Soccer Fortunes Rising, If Only Slightly

LONDON (CP) — British sport heads into 1961 through a bewildering maze of portents pointing everywhere from the heights of achievement to stark disaster.

Cricket enthusiasts live in reasonable hope of watching England even the score for a humiliating defeat at the hands of Australia two years ago when the Aussies appear for their rubber of five test matches next summer. Yet, some of the poorer county sides are fighting for survival against mounting deficits.

England's improving international football 11 shapes up as a serious contender for the 1962 World Cup and Tottenham Hotspur enthralled First Division soccer crowds with some of the most attractive soccer seen since the Second World War.

But falling attendances and mounting costs jeopardize the future of the majority of lower ranking professional clubs and a strike threat by dissatisfied players threatens to aggravate their financial troubles.

Both sports toyed with ideas of reorganization.

Football Fortunes Perk Up in Fall

The English footballers, after an indifferent spring, settled on an effective lineup under the captaincy of Fulham strategist Johnny Haynes and won all four of their autumn internationals. They looked particularly impressive in a 3-1 victory over Spain in which they showed the benefits of studying Continental training and playing styles.

Horse-racing produced an unchallenged English-bred three-year-old champion in Sir Victor Sasoon's St. Paddy, who repelled the best of the French and Irish invaders in the Derby and the St. Leger. But it was a lack-luster season, marred by a coughing epidemic and recurrent doping incidents.

A new deal was promised for off-track enthusiasts with the introduction of betting shons, enabling them to make legal cash transactions with their bookmakers who previously were permitted to accept off-the-course wagers only on credit and by telephone or mail.

'No Decision' Ruled In First Scrimmage

TORONTO (CP) — Both sides in a legal contest over the sale of the Hamilton Tiger-Cats Big Four Football team withdrew Thursday into silent huddles without scoring a point.

In Thursday's scrimmage, the Ontario Supreme Court was to have ruled on extension of an interim injunction delaying the sale of the club to a group of Hamilton men.

But at the request of both parties, the court did not rule.

7 PRO FINAL MONDAY

Norm's Chance To Prove Point

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin of Philadelphia Eagles says stories saying he can't throw in cold weather or in snow or rain are a "crock of beans."

"I don't know where these stories get started," said the star passer of the National Football League Eagles, "but they're ridiculous."

Van Brocklin, whose passing played a major role in Eagle drive to the NFL eastern title, commented:

"Naturally it's more difficult to throw in the cold, rain and snow. All passers have trouble gripping the ball. But I don't have any more or less difficulty than the next guy."

CHANCE TO PROVE IT

However, he may have a chance to squelch these stories next Monday in the NFL championship game against Green Bay Packers. The long range forecast is for sub-freezing weather and possibly snow.

Pressure of a title game is nothing new to Van Brocklin. He's been in four with Los Angeles Rams, winning once, in 1951, and losing three times.

Coach Buck Shaw makes no bones about Eagles standing or falling on the arm that completed 153 of 284 passes for 2,471 yards and threw 24 touchdowns tosses during the regular season.

"The hay is pretty well-in the barn," said Shaw: "We've come this far with Van. He'll have to take up the rest of the way."

Kickoff for the final is 8:45 a.m. PST and the contest will be televised nationally by the CBC.

DOWN TO SIZE

In Green Bay, coach Vince Lombardi smiled a bit when he looked at the weight chart for Eagles.

"We'll be playing somebody our own size, for a change," he said.

"Some of the Eagles are big and fast, but not as big as some we've played this year," Lombardi said.

Figures shows the four-man Packer defensive line weighs in at 970 pounds, just seven pounds less than Eagles' front wall. On offense the five men of the Packer interior line has an edge, 1,208 pounds to 1,118 for Eagles.

BOWLING Fault Finder

The Pushaway

By GLENN ALLISON
Brunswick Star Bowler

The pushaway is the trigger to a good game.

When it misfires, a bowler is in real trouble.

For instance, in the National Doubles recently, my pushaway was out of time with my other movements and I rolled a dismal 160. But when the trigger is hot, I'm hot, too, as I was a couple of years ago when I rolled two consecutive perfect games.

My big trouble with the pushaway is that I tend to push the ball off to my right.

When my bowling is not good, I concentrate on straightening out the pushaway—and my game usually straightens out, too.

Front-running Kickers of the Victoria and District Football League may find little to cheer about during the festive season.

SHOPPING GUIDEThis Unusual Meat Loaf Perfect for Busy Days

By PENNY SAVER

The important day is almost here and housewives have little or no time to spend preparing meals during the last few hours. Save time and money by serving a meat loaf that's just different enough to keep the family interested!

By adding some water chestnuts and bamboo shoots with your meat, eggs and flavoring you'll have a dish that's perfectly designed for hectic days. Eighteen-ounce cans of water chestnuts sell at 52 cents and have intriguing recipes printed on their labels.

Tasty tidbits will be the order of the day when friends drop in during the holiday season.

Imported from Denmark are delicacies that you should keep in mind. Cocktail brislings, cooked in a variety of sauces, sell at 49 cents for two tins, each containing 2½ ounces. There are brislings cooked in mustard sauce, others in chili sauce and some in curry sauce.

For a party spread get some of the Danish pate that sells at 17 cents for a 2¼-ounce tin. Naturally, you'll get some cocktail sausages. These are priced at 49 cents for a four-ounce tin and 79 cents for an eight-ounce tin.

Your guests will love the zesty tang of black pickled walnuts. These are imported from England and sell at 80 cents for a 10-ounce jar.

High on the popularity poll are smoked oysters. These come from Japan and are priced at 55 cents for two 3½-ounce tins.

Rich sauces seem to demand a few chopped mushrooms for that extra fillip. Save money and time by getting one of the five-ounce cans of prepared mushrooms that sell at 36 cents. Mushrooms are chopped and have all been broiled in butter.

Lastly for party dips or a steaming dish of warm clam chowder after the midnight service or at the end of a busy day get some of the razor clams that sell at 38 cents for a seven-ounce can. Razor clams are hard to find and are especially in demand for their rich, white meat. These come from our own Queen Charlotte Islands.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Brushing Lashes Upward Promotes Their Growth

Q. "I have heard that removing superfluous hair by electrolysis can cause cancer of the skin. Is this true?"

A. No. So far as I know there is absolutely no basis for this idea. It sounds like an "old wives' tale."

Q. "Is there any way to make eyelashes longer and thicker?"

A. There are many products on the market for promoting eyelash growth. I think that the stimulation which goes along with applying them is most important. I know that the habit of brushing the lashes upward a few times each night, using a little lash brush, is an aid.

Q. "I would like your opinion as to what is wrong with my figure. I am 5 feet 5½ inches tall. My bust measures 33 inches, waist 23 inches and hips 37."

A. You did not give me your weight or tell me whether you have a small, large or medium frame. However, I guess that you are certainly not overweight, that you have a small build, and you carry a bit too much weight on your hips. I think your problem will be solved if you take hip-slimming exercises.

Q. "I have pimples on my forehead and no other place. What can I do about them?"

A. Wash your forehead with soap and water several times a day. Be careful not to spread the infection to other parts of the face.

Culottes are in for bowling. If you're an active bowler, consider the culotte in wool jersey.

Feminine Representation in Public Life In 1960 Reaches Many Different Fields

Women extended their representation in public life in Canada during 1960 with the appointment of two grandmothers to the Senate, a federal byelection victory in Ontario and the appearance of the first woman member in the Nova Scotia Legislature.

Mrs. Joanna Quatt, 62, of Sillery, Que., and Mrs. Olive Irvine, 64, of Winnipeg, joined five other women in the Senate. Mrs. Quatt is president of the Women's Progressive Conservative Association of Canada and Mrs. Irvine is a former school teacher.

Judy LaMarsh, 35-year-old lawyer, became the 11th woman to be elected to the Commons. She won Niagara Falls for the Liberals and joined three Progressive Conservative women MPs—Immigration Minister Eileen Fairclough, Jean Casselman and Margaret Aitken.

Gladys Porter, 65, mayor of the Annapolis Valley town of Kentville, broke the male monopoly in the Nova Scotia legislature when she won Kings North for the Progressive Conservatives.

CHARLOTTE BACK

And at the municipal level, Charlotte Whitton returned as mayor of Ottawa after an absence of four years.

Politics wasn't the only field in which the ladies made their mark. Mary Louise Lynch, Saint John, N.B., lawyer, became the first of her sex to serve on the National Parole Board. Berangere Gaudet was certified as Montreal's first female notary.

The continuing campaign for equal rights with men got a boost in Halifax when women got their first chance in 20 years to serve on juries. There had been no legal barrier but it was the practice to omit their names from the jury list. Alderman Abbie Lane spearheaded the demand for the change.

Women were prominent in the affairs of immigration, and not simply because the federal department is headed by a woman minister.

The most celebrated immigrant was an internationally famous beauty, Gina Lollobrigida, who chose Toronto as her home in order to establish citizenship for her stateless husband, Dr. Milko and their son.

The 2,000,000th immigrant since the end of the Second World War was a young lady, 16-year-old Annette Toft of Denmark, who arrived in December and went to live in Calgary.

FIGHT TO STAY

Two other women fought to remain in Canada. Ireni Rebrin, 33-year-old lecturer in Russian at the University of British Columbia, appealed to the Supreme Court of Canada against a deportation order.

When your feet are tired, they sometimes swell. You can help correct this condition by propping them up on every possible occasion. And before you go to bed, try wrapping them in wet towels for about five minutes each night.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Former president Truman said today he was expressing an "opinion" when he reported Gen. Douglas MacArthur advocated use of atomic bombs during the Korean war. MacArthur had termed the report "completely false."

"I have no documentation," Truman told reporters who questioned him about his remarks which revived the controversy started when the former president fired MacArthur from command in the Korean conflict.

MacArthur angrily denied Thursday night that he proposed using atomic bombs in Korea. He also said that the bombs used against Japan to end the Second World War were not needed.

"I've had my say and the general has had his and you can believe anyone you want to," Truman declared during his morning walk with reporters.

POINTS TO RECORDS

Truman made his charge on a Chicago television program last Saturday.

MacArthur issued his denial here through an aide. He said the records would show he never even discussed use of the atom bomb in Korea.

Truman, in his memoirs, did not directly accuse MacArthur of advocating the atom bomb, saying only that MacArthur's proposals to bomb Yalu River bridges risked extending the Korean fighting into a general conflict.

"I expressed an opinion on the program which was not in my memoirs," Truman said.

MacArthur, in his statement, said the atomic bomb was not needed in Korea "any more than we did in the war against Japan."

Truman snapped back today: "The use of the atomic bomb ended the war. Any man can win a football game on Monday morning."

Truman, who ordered the dropping of atom bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki which brought the war with Japan to a close, has said repeatedly that he did so to save the lives of thousands of military personnel that would be lost in an invasion.

He removed MacArthur in 1951 from command as UN forces under MacArthur neared the Yalu River which separates Red China from Northern Korea.

Truman, in the taped interview with Chicago Sun-Times columnist Irv Kupcinet over WBMM-TV, made the following remarks:

Kupcinet: "Was there any pressure on you to release the A-bomb again in the Korean conflict?"

Truman: "Yes, MacArthur wanted to do that."

Kupcinet: "MacArthur did?"

Truman: "Yes, he wanted to bomb China and Eastern Russia and everything else."

Kupcinet: "Use the atomic bomb?"

Truman: "Why, of course, it's the only weapon we had that they would understand."

Kupcinet: "Was this one of the main reasons you recalled him?"

Truman: "I recalled him for disobedience of orders. He was in private contact with the Republican minority in the House of Representatives, Joe Martin, and he had been warned that the commander-in-chief was still the commander-in-chief."

MacArthur, in his statement, said it was equally untrue that he had disobeyed orders.

COUNCIL BRIEFS

Firehall Lease Bid Rejected

The city finance committee

Thursday rejected an application for leasing the old Victoria West fire hall and asked for a report on feasibility of demolishing the building and selling the property.

Thunderbird All-Girl Drum Corps asked for a five-year lease, at $25 annually, on the rundown building and said it would make necessary repairs.

But the committee decided that a study should be made to see if the property should be sold.

Aldermen weren't optimistic that city ratepayers would get relief from school costs soon when they were informed that a city brief to the province had brought a reply that a larger share of federal income taxes would be necessary first.

"With a $300,000 deficit, there is not much chance of that," sighed Ald. Hugh Ramsay, referring to the prediction of the federal "bad budget" this week.

The fire department was notified at 10:29 p.m. in.

George Cook, 3019 Carroll, owner of the house, said a prospective tenant visited the house Thursday night.

He revisited the house later to pick up some power tools in the basement, he said.

The house had been vacant for about two weeks.

The committee recommended approval of a $13,900 transfer from Memorial Arena Commission reserve fund to help pay for the $53,000 project of installing a new floor and sideboards. A final $8,000 owing on the project will be met out of Arena operating funds, city manager C. C. Wyatt said.

A security deposit of $2,250.00 or a 10% bid bond is also required.

GOVERNOR, ARCHBISHOP AT BOYS' CLUB

'Shrine to Gallant Son'

By NORMAN CRIBBENS three local boys acted as Col. Bull thanked all who had contributed to the work, including his fellow directors and Mrs. Walker Taylor, the club's librarian.

In a bright new coat of Mr. Pearkes recalled that he paint and with light stream was once a scout master anding from its newly renovated "district commissioner" windows, it was officially re-dedicated. The Scout movement is dedicated as the Boys' Club's world-wide," he said, "but it does not attract boys of every type and temperament." Not every young Canadian wants to wear shorts and go camping.

The opening ceremony was performed by Lieutenant-Governor George Pearkes with dedication by Archbishop Harold Sexton.

'VITALLY NEEDED'

"The service Cadets appeal to other types and the Boys' Clubs of Canada do many of the things that they do. But they have a special appeal for boys who may not wish to be either scouts or cadets, and they are vitally needed today."

'GALLANT SON'

"The reconstruction of this historic fire-hall is a wonderful Christmas present to the boys of Victoria," said Mr. Pearkes. "It stands as a shrine to the memory of a gallant son."

The premises have been re-built and re-equipped, at a cost of more than $17,000, by Col. and Mrs. R. O. Bull of Ardmore as a memorial to physical development.

Mr. Pearkes emphasized that boys could do their home work in the club if they wished and use it for a variety of healthy pursuits such as games, handicrafts and sports.

The key to the building was formally presented to Ronald Pearkes while Mr. Havard, executive director of Esquimalt, gave the club an auspicious Geoffrey Edgeland, one of the sendoff. The first members—board of directors.

The club will be open for the registration of members next Tuesday from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m.

The membership fee is $1 but boys who do not have this sum will be able to earn it in the club.

Farmer Fined $150 In Brucellosis Case

A fine of $150 was imposed on T. Byron McNutt, 4149 Grange, in Saanich police court Thursday after he failed to comply with an order to destroy a diseased animal in his herd of Guernsey cattle.

On Tuesday he was convicted of maintaining a cow known to have given a positive reaction to a blood test for brucellosis, but sentence was delayed two days to give him an opportunity to destroy the animal.

"I take it you don't intend to slaughter this animal," Magistrate Ostler said.

"I'm standing pat on this," McNutt replied.

"I'm standing pat on this to pay the fine or one month's prison in default."

It was a clowning morning. Sammy stayed on until 2:15 a.m. (1 hour and 20 minutes). People were talking and visitors were going "SSSHH, SSSH!"

"But I'm talking as soft as I can," Sammy told them. My B.W. and Shirley Eder were laughing. Women-like, the B.W. said, "It's kind of noisy, isn't it?" I said, "Yes, you are."

(Pardon me for telling my own snappers but I don't expect to get another word in until late in 1961.)

After kidding Marciano, Berle said to Desi Arnaz, "I have just one word for you, 'Lucky!'" Desi jumped up shrieking, "How do you spell 'Lucky?'" I'll tell you how I spell it." But Berle never let him.

Sammy said he'd talked to Jack and it's definite that Frank Sinatra's been Ambassador to Italy. "I haven't got any news yet on being Ambassador to Israel," he said.

Sammy's wife, who's expecting in August, will arrive from L.A. and I guess we'll see her ringeling often. Jack Carter, Bill Dendix, Tony Bennett, Johnny Rave, Fran Warren and Gene Bavlos were also there and Sammy introduced them in song — a sleek trick, probably done in a cafe for

Jeweller Faces Charge

Islanders Organize Ferry Firm

LASQUETI ISLAND—Residents here have formed a ferry company and look forward to establishing a long-sought ferry connection between here and French Creek, between Parksville and Qualicum.

A Vancouver firm has been approached regarding construction of the ferry. It will be diesel-powered, 40 feet long by 13-foot beam, and will carry 20 passengers and one ton of freight.

It is estimated it will take one-hour for the 10-mile crossing between French Creek and its island port at False Bay.

Formation of the company follows three-years of effort started when Union Steamships gave up its service to the island in 1957.

A month ago, after William Fisher and his three children lost their lives while making the crossing in their small cruiser, residents appealed to Highways Minister P. A. Gagliardi for a subsidized service.

On receiving word that he would consider the appeal, the residents formed Lasqueti Island Ferry Company. The highways department approached the Vancouver firm and asked that the service be started as soon as possible.

FARE HIKE ONLY WAY GULF ISLANDERS TOLD

An increase in fares is the only way Gulf Islanders residents will get better winter ferry service.

Highways Minister P. A. Gagliardi said this week his department cannot provide a winter subsidy for Mt. Motor Princess.

He said his department is investigating the possibility she can run without a subsidy if the fares are raised.

The government subsidized the run during the rest of the year.

"I gave them all they asked and now they want more," said Mr. Gagliardi.

Princess has been taken off the run from Swartz Bay. Service is now provided by the smaller Oy Feek which carries only 14 cars.

"We shall use only the finest nature can provide...an honest brew makes its own friends."

They say they have more energy than ever, more endurance, and enjoy better posture.

Air Mail Run Considered For Nanaimo

NANAIMO—A plan to provide air mail service between here and Vancouver, starting next spring, is under consideration in Ottawa.

Walter F. Matthews, MP for Nanaimo, said service might begin April 1.

Cassidair Services, which operates scheduled flights between Cassidy Airport and Sea Island, has stopped operations for the winter months.

Mr. Matthews suggested, however, that when it resumes operations in the spring, air mail service might be included in the franchise.

FISTS FLY AS STRIKES PILE UP IN BELGIUM

BRUSSELS (Reuters)—A fist-fight between Socialist and Roman Catholic legislators broke out in the Lower House of Parliament tonight as deputies debated a mounting wave of strikes against the Belgian government's austerity plans. The fight soon involved nearly all the deputies present.

Meanwhile an anti-austerity strike continued to spread.

PAY HIKE FOR FORCES

$1.6 Billion for Defence

By DAVE MCINTOSH, Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP)—The 1961-62 defence budget will amount to about $1,600,000,000, reliable informants said today.

Defence expenditures, in other words, will be about the same as in the current fiscal year which ends March 31, 1961. The 1960-61 defence budget is $1,596,000,000.

Spending on defence takes up about one-quarter of all federal outlays.

The treasury board, a cabinet committee, has approved the defence budget but it had a difficult time keeping it at about the 1960-61 level.

Main reason for this is that $150,000,000 had to be found for the CF-104 reconnaissance bomber program in 1961-62, double the amount required in the current fiscal year.

Pay increases for the armed forces will cost about $40,000,000 and spending will rise on the $120,000,000 program to provide two Bomarc anti-aircraft missile bases, new radars and the SAGE electronic control system for air defence.

Informants said savings will have to be made in armed forces operations and maintenance to leave funds for new weapons.

RCAF BANS TRANSISTORS

OTTAWA (CP)—The RCAF has barred carriage of transistor radios by a crew or passengers in any of its aircraft, an air force spokesman said today.

Such radios, when in operation, can interfere with flight instruments, the spokesman said.

TORONTO (CP)—A Trans-Canada Air Lines spokesman said today passengers are requested not to play tiny transistor pocket radios aboard his company's aircraft.

No Transistors On Plane Wreck

(See Page 3)

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Board said today that no transistor radio was found in the wreckage of the airplanes that collided over New York city Dec. 16.

'Maverick' Tory Member Resigns Seat

CAMPBELLTON, N.B. (CP)—J. C. Van Horne said in a statement here today he has resigned the Restigouche-Madawaska seat he has held as a Progressive Conservative in the Commons since 1953.

He said the resignation, effective last Tuesday, was made in a letter to Prime Minister Diefenbaker and delivered to the prime minister's secretary Wednesday.

Mr. Van Horne quoted his Dec. 20 letter as follows:

"Both sides of the Campbellton-Cross Pt. bridge were joined across the Restigouche yesterday. In keeping, therefore, with an expressed undertaking made to my constituents some five years ago I hereby resign as a member of this House."

"With sincerest best wishes and kindest personal regards."

The reference was to a bridge spanning the Restigouche River between here and Cross Point, Que.

The 39-year-old Campbellton lawyer had a prominent part in efforts to obtain the bridge.

He was first elected to the Commons in a 1955 by-election, ending a 22-year Liberal hold on Restigouche-Madawaska.

He became known as the "Maverick Tory" for attacks on policies of his own party.

After a scalpel incision from ear to ear, the surgeon moved deeper through the maze of delicate tissues and nerve cells. He removed the knob while colleagues assisted.

Then came a change that Dr. Shillito had forecast. Stephen suddenly made progress. He began walking by himself. He began to talk like his five-year-old pals.

MIRACLE FOR CHRISTMAS —THEIR STEPHEN ALIVE

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—Stephen Bloom, 5½, stands by the family Christmas tree. He greets a visitor with a friendly, "Hi." His eager brown eyes reflect the shining of the Christmas lights.

"A miracle," his parents murmur to the visitor.

They say that with good reason, for Stephen has come through a horrifying accident and one of the most delicate brain operations ever performed in New England.

Mrs. John D. Bloom heard a fall last June 22 as Stephen and one of his two sisters played in their father's basement workshop. She rushed down. Stephen was pulling the tip of a rabbit-eat television antenna from under his right eye. He had fallen on it.

At Newport hospital four stitches closed the wound. X-rays showed nothing. That night Stephen turned rapidly worse. Next morning doctors advised his transfer to Boston Children's Medical Centre.

Tests showed brain damage. Dr. John Shillito, Boston neurosurgeon, discovered what the x-rays could not show, that the plastic knob from the end of the antenna was lodged several inches behind Stephen's right eye—in his brain.

The eye itself was all right.

Bacteria already had started a possibly fatal infection. Dr. Shillito said all that could be done was to operate "and pray."

VICTORIA, B.C., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1960—PAGE 11

FERRIES GET 'BONUS' AS FOG HITS PLANES

Fog at Sea Island and Patricia Bay airports has throttled Trans-Canada Air Lines holiday season traffic to and from the mainland, with most of the passengers switching to the government ferries.

Only one flight was operated Thursday, a late afternoon run to Seattle. There have been no Vancouver flights since Wednesday evening.

As of noon today, all Vancouver flights up to and including the 2:45 p.m. were cancelled. The airline, hoping for a break in the weather conditions, is prepared to operate as many additional sections as needed to move the backlog of traffic.

SAWDUST SPILLED on street and against rock bluff at 9:05 a.m. today when truck toppled on Esquimalt Road after making left turn from Catherine Street. City police said brakes failed as truck neared red light, and that driver, Sohan Singh Basi, 2846 Rose, swung left to avoid traffic. He suffered shock and cuts on forehead, was treated at St. Joseph's and discharged. (Times Photo by Bill Halkett.)

... HERE AND THERE ... With NORMAN CRIBBENS

I am inordinately proud of being a citizen of this, the Fairest City of Them All.

At times, overbearingly so.

But not at this time of the year.

At this time of the year, namely the 23rd of December, I am inclined to sink into a hole and therein write letters to the editor signed "Indignant Citizen."

Because this, the Fairest City of Them All is, once again the victim of rank discrimination. If not deliberate segregation.

We who live here are cut off from the Rest of Canada, as the Rest of Canada goes about its preparations for the Yuletide Festivities.

The Rest of Canada has all it needs for a glorious Yuletide, up-to-and-including that delicate, beautiful, decorative white mantle known to the meteorologists as Snow.

But do we, the citizens of this, the Fairest City of Them All, have any promise of Snow for Christmas?

Even My Favorite Meteorologist, Mr. William Mackie, says no to snow.

"No snow for you, son," says Mr. Mackie. "If you want snow, you gotta go."

Sarnia, Ont., has snow. Winnipeg, Man., has snow. Even Kelowna, B.C., has snow in addition to a visit from our temporary resident, Mr. Bennett.

But does this, the Fairest City of Them All, have snow?

I think it is again time to take up the question of snowing from the Rest of Canada.

If the Rest of Canada isn't willing to let us have a little of its surplus snow for Christmas—even on a lending basis—it is time we went to the highest court of the land, and pleaded our case on the basis of no taxation without precipitation.

Think of what we will be missing on Christmas Day. No white mantles on our outdoor Christmas trees. Nothing round about which is deep and crisp and even. No chance to swing a shovel. No tires spinning, none of the camaraderie and joyous shouts which occur when one helps one's neighbor to his feet from the nearest snowbank.

I have it on the highest authority (the aforementioned Mr. Mackie) that we have had snow on Christmas Day in these parts only five times since 1880.

But I regard this as a feeble excuse.

If Canada is so anxious to develop export markets, how about exporting a little snow from the Rest of Canada to us, the dismal citizens of This, the Fairest City of Them All?

There's no business like snow business, so let's have a little business out our way.

(Incidentally, in case the Rest of Canada is worried, we would be glad to send the snow back on Dec. 26.)

140 Parking Spots Wasted, Survey Shows

Vehement attack on yellow curb lines as wasted parking space was launched Thursday by city police commission.

Commissioner William Hamilton said he had ordered a survey by police which showed 140 street meter spaces could be added downtown by removing yellow lines without infringing provincial traffic regulations.

"If these spaces were used only six times a day we could serve an additional 800-900 cars," he said.

"I'm all for it and I want to congratulate you on your initiative," said Mayor Percy Scurr. "I've maintained in council for many months that there are altogether too many yellow lines in the city."

DRIVEN OUT

Mr. Hamilton said the yellow lines—which prohibit parking or stopping at any time—were driving shoppers out of the downtown area.

He said the police list was sent to the city engineer's department last summer where "it's been lying around in their office since July and they haven't done anything about it."

Commission instructed Insp. Bruce Douglass, head of the traffic squad, to meet city traffic engineer Norman Worsley to discuss the list and its implementation.

TRAFFIC FINES

In city police court today, Arthur Neville, 985 Wilmar, $30 for careless driving.

Philip A. Lindgren, 2815 Colquitz, $25, no driver's licence.

David Hopwood, 1253 Chapman, $15, passing red light.

TOPICS OF THE DAY

Christmas presents stolen earlier this month from the ears of C. Seymour, 800 Dahlid, and J. Witty, 664 Lambe Drive, will be returned to their owners today.

Trevor Caley, 18, of 2807 Nanaimo Street, pleaded guilty in city police court to possessing the stolen gifts.

He was remanded by Magistrate William Ostler until next Friday for sentence.

Juvenile officer Lyle Somers told the court Caley was arrested after attempting to obtain from the Hudson's Bay Co. store refunds for the stolen merchandise.

ASK The TIMES

Q. What is the height of Vancouver Island's three tallest mountains and what is the height of the highest part of the Malahat? S.P.

A. Highest three mountains are the Golden Hind, 7,219 feet, west of Courtenay; Elkhorn, 7,200 feet, northwest of the Golden Hind, and Victoria Peak, 7,095 feet, near Campbell River. The Malahat Drive is just over 1,150 feet high.

Q. Exactly what are the "small hours" of the morning?

A. Midnight to 3 a.m., after that it becomes early morning.

Anyone wishing a question answered is invited to send the problem along to The Times' Editor. Questions and answers will be made public.

All questions should deal with matters of fact and be of general interest. The Times does not accept legal problems. Nor will it attempt to put a value on old coins, stamps or antiques. These should be submitted to dealers.

New American cars are getting too fancy for police work, city police commission learned Thursday.

Chief John Blackstock said some of the 1960 and 1961 models are so low slung that police officers can't wear their uniform caps in the prowls cars "and it just doesn't look nice."

Hans Kroenke, 703 Pine, was fined $5 in city police court Thursday for allowing his dogs to run at large.

The subject of complaints when a child was reported knocked down by the playful animals—male, female and a pup—Kroenke pleaded guilty and was allowed time to dispose of the dogs before sentence was imposed.

"I think you've demonstrated your good faith by getting rid of these dogs," Magistrate William Ostler remarked.

Linda Fields, 1209 Greenwood, an employee at the hospital lab, told police someone took her wallet with the money and papers sometime between 6 and 10 p.m. Tuesday.

George Robertson, 3234 Admirals, was fined $10 and $3 costs when he appeared in Colwood RCMP court Wednesday charged with having a deer carcass with unfastened tag in its ear.

John Fallarade of Victoria, pleaded not guilty in city police court today of obstructing a police officer in the performance of his duty. He was remanded until next Friday for trial. Bail was fixed at $100.

He is accused of obstructing Constable James Hotchkiss.

Dairy Charged With Using Illegal Cartons

Action Climaxes 14-Month Threat

A threat hanging over Milky Way Dairy Ltd., 815 Beckwith, for the past 14 months turned into fact today when the firm was ordered into court to face a charge of using improper milk cartons.

The charge was laid by Kenneth G. Savage, a B.C. government dairy inspector with headquarters in Vancouver.

A summons was delivered today, and the firm's representative will appear in Saanich police court Dec. 29.

Henry G. Robinson, dairy manager, refused comment on the charge.

CABINET ORDER

It concerns the 64-ounce carton used by the company, contrary to a cabinet order of a year ago that milk only be sold in quantities based on the Imperial quart of 40 ounces.

More than a year ago Mr. Robinson and his associates had their plans for a dairy approved by a government official, and were given permission to use the 64-ounce carton.

This project will finish them to give us 16 more beds and at the same time we will rough in two more wards," he said.

Tenders were called today for construction of additions which will add 16 beds to accommodate at Queen Alexandra Solarium by summer. Expected to cost about $75,000, the project will increase bed capacity to 80 at the Arbutus Road hospital for children and pave the way for another 16-bed addition later.

Administrator John Holdstock said that two eight-bed wards were "roughed in" at the end of each wing when the Solarium was built in 1958.

"This project will finish them to give us 16 more beds and at the same time we will rough in two more wards," he said.

Tenders are due Jan. 27 in the hands of architects Wade, Stockdill and Armour. Construction is expected to take about four months.

"We scheduled it for the winter period to help out with the local employment situation," said Mr. Holdstock.

'World Network' For Mt. View Student Voices

Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce has established a record.

They will send a recording of voices of Mount View High School student choir to several different countries through the Jaycee international.

The idea behind the venture is to establish a link with Australia, France, the United Kingdom and Hong Kong so that by next Christmas students in these centres may send recordings to the Victoria group.

The choir of 78 girls and 22 boys sing three Christmas carols and a Russian piece. Included in the 10-minute long-play are commentaries by students Eleanor Graham and Grant Udy on the school, Christmas in Victoria, and Victoria itself.

The choir is under the direction of S. G. McFarland and J. P. Fawcett, while the Jaycees education and youth development committee, which originated the program, is headed by Blair Little.

ELECTION PAYOFF

Last Nov. 4 James Rhodes, newly-sworn MLA for Delta, called the agriculture department's "delayed action" against the dairy "an election payoff" to big dairy firms.

He said government action against the independent Saanich dairy for using 64-ounce cartons apparently followed pressure from competitors, but that action was held up until after the Sept. 12 election.

Competing dairies do not use the 64-ounce carton.

"The order-in-council (last year) must have been because of pressure from the big dairies which ship milk to the area," Mr. Rhodes said. "But it was not enforced until after the election . . . it appears to be an election payoff for the big lower mainland dairies."

Last year at this time there were 5,039 registered for employment at the local NES office, 3,607 men and 1,432 women.

Highlight of the evening for more than 80 students was their visit to Government House where they were invited into the state ballroom to sing for Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Pearkes.

Christmas cake was served to the choristers.

Another Christmas project of college students is the adoption of three needy families.

Through the students' council they are being supplied with all the necessities for Christmas dinner, along with toys collected by students for the children.

City Firm Wins Demolition Job At Royal Jubilee

Work will start immediately on demolition of the old administration building at Royal Jubilee Hospital, it was announced today.

A $4,925 contract for the job has been awarded to Farmer Construction Ltd. of Victoria.

The announcement was made jointly by Health Minister Eric Martin, George Masters, Jubilee administrator, and Joseph Casey, chairman of the building committee.

Courtney Haddock, chairman of the hospital board, said the main new Jubilee project, a five-storey wing, will get under way early in the new year.

The new wing, besides much-needed bed space, will include a complete surgical floor, cancer treatment unit, a radiological suite and administrative offices.

SIX UP AND TWO MORE FLOORS TO GO before this building becomes

Victoria's first high-rise apartment block. The $530,000 structure, at 240 Douglas, is being built by Westcott Construction of Vancouver. Its eight stories will hold 60 suites and a bank of elevators. Completion of construction is expected about April and opening will follow in May. Several other high-rise apartment developments in James Bay are under consideration and Westcott Construction is negotiating for sites.

ONTARIO HARD HIT

Heavy Snowfall Blocks Hundreds

By The Canadian Press

Snowplow crews fought against stiff winds and drifting snow today to keep open roads in various parts of southern Ontario following heavy snowsqualls Thursday which forced hundreds of motorists to seek refuge in homes, public halls and wherever they could find shelter.

Provincial police in Belleville reported Highway 2 open after being blocked for several hours by the storm, which swept in off the Great Lakes.

The highways department weather office at Toronto said 18 inches of snow fell in the Brighton and Trenton area in eastern Ontario.

On the north shore of Lake Ontario, at Coborne, about 90 miles east of Toronto, an estimated 1,000 persons jammed

10 Inches in Less Than 12 Hours

The pocket storms, caused by warm lake winds meeting a cold air mass over the land, dumped about 10 inches of snow in less than 12 hours.

Many areas of the shoreline between Oshawa and Belleville were still experiencing blizzard conditions early today.

At Cobourne, about 50 miles west of Belleville, all hotel and motel rooms were filled with motorists who decided to wait out the storm. The community of Camborne, only six miles north, reported no snow at all.

The area from Simcoe to Port Colborne along the Lake Erie shoreline reported near-blizzard conditions Thursday night with visibility cut down to a car length.

MIRACLE FOR CHRISTMAS —THEIR STEPHEN ALIVE

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Tip of a rabbit-ear television antenna from under his right eye, he had fallen on it. At Newport hospital four stitches closed the wound. X-rays showed nothing. That night Stephen turned rapidly worse. Next morning doctors advised his transfer to Boston Children's Medical Centre.

They say that with good reason, for Stephen has come through a horrifying accident. Dr. John Shillito, Boston neurosurgeon, discovered what the x-rays could not show, that the plastic knob from the end of the antenna was lodged in his right eye—in his brain. The eye itself was all right.

Bacteria already had started a possibly fatal infection. Dr. Shillito said all that could be done was to operate "and pray."

After a scalp incision from ear to ear, the surgeon moved deeper through the maze of delicate tissues and nerve cells.

He removed the knob while colleagues assisted.

For three months, Stephen was like an infant.

Then came a change that Dr. Shillito had forecast. Stephen suddenly made progress. He began walking by himself. He began to talk like his five-year-old pals.

OTTAWA (CP) — The RCAF has barred carriage of transistors by aircrew or passengers in any of its aircraft, an air force spokesman said today.

PAY HIKE FOR FORCES

$1.6 Billion for Defence

By DAVE McINTOSH, Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP) — The 1961-62 defence budget will amount to about $1,600,000,000, reliable informants said today.

Defence expenditures, in other words, will be about the same as in the current fiscal year which ends March 31, 1961. The 1960-61 defence budget is $1,596,000,000.

Spending on defence takes up about one-quarter of all federal outlays.

The treasury board, a cabinet committee, has approved the defence budget but it had a difficult time keeping it at about the 1960-61 level.

Main reason for this is that $150,000,000 had to be found for the CF-104 reconnaissance bomber program in 1961-62.

Informants said savings will be made in armed forces operations and maintenance to leave funds for new weapons.

JFK Names Economist

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President-elect Kennedy today chose Dr. Walter W. Heller, a University of Minnesota economist and tax expert, to be chairman of his council of economic advisers.

Heller's appointment follows the amount required in the current fiscal year.

Pay increases for the armed forces will cost about $40,000,000 and spending will rise on the $120,000,000 program to provide two Bomarc anti-aircraft missiles bases, new radars and the SAGE electronic control system for air defence.

Informants said savings will be made in armed forces operations and maintenance to leave funds for new weapons.

'CHILDREN OF INDIA'

Naval Rating Willing—Are You?

(See donations page 21.)

By TONY DICKASON

No names, insisted the naval rating.

Mother-in-law is staying with him, and a couple of other relatives. Plus this is wife and children.

He and his chum, an unemployed civilian, are both short of money at this season. But they want to give to the Times.

"If I am not here," said the naval chap, RCN for 12 years, "my chum will do it. We feel strongly about the whole thing. If something happens to him, we'll hire another person to do the job."

"We guarantee it. This way somebody gets their money's worth, and donates to a good cause also."

The naval rating said he had been "around," and seen the suffering in India, together with other places in the East.

This is why, he said, the offer had been made.

He and his friends drew lots to approach the Times. Navy man lost, so he was elected.

"Earth will be fine as sand, tilled at least six inches deep."

So they come. Oak Bay High students turn in a cheque, as does Shelburne Elementary grade 5. Others, to be listed later, did the same.

This marks the eighth year the Times has operated as a receiving and distributing house for the wonderful contributions of Victoria residents.

The money mends disease-ridden little bodies, and guarantees a fuller, happier life.

•Maverick' Tory Member Resigns Seat

CAMPBELLTON, N.B. (CP) — J. C. Van Horne said in a statement here today he has resigned the Restigouche-Madawaska seat he has held as a Progressive Conservative in the Commons since 1955.

He said the resignation, effective last Tuesday, was made in a letter to Prime Minister Diefenbaker and delivered to the prime minister's secretary Wednesday.

Mr. Van Horne quoted his Dec. 20 letter as follows:

"Both sides of the Campbellton-Cross Pt. bridge were joined across the Restigouche yesterday. In keeping, therefore, with an expressed undertaking made to my constituents some five years ago I hereby resign as a member of this House."

"With sincerest best wishes and kindest personal regards."

The reference was to a bridge spanning the Restigouche River between here and Cross Point, Que.

The 39-year-old Campbellton lawyer had a prominent part in efforts to obtain the bridge.

He was first elected to the Commons in a 1955 by-election, ending a 22-year Liberal hold on Restigouche-Madawaska.

He became known as the "Maverick Tory" for attacks on policies of his own party.

Ready to Improve U.S. Relations After Kennedy Sworn In-Gromyko

MOSCOW (AP)—Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko said today the Soviet Union is ready to improve its relations with the United States following the inauguration of President-Elect Kennedy.

Gromyko told the Supreme Soviet parliament that his government hopes U.S.-Soviet relations after Kennedy's inauguration will revert to the state they were in during the administration of Franklin D. Roosevelt—a hope expressed by Premier Khrushchev in a cable last month congratulating Kennedy on his victory.

"I am authorized to state that on the part of the Soviet government there is full readiness to promote the all-around betterment of Soviet-American relations," he said.

KHRUSHCHEV SILENT

An expected foreign policy speech by Khrushchev did not take place and the session ended following unanimous approval of the government's foreign policy.

Gromyko gave no indication that Soviet policy would be modified to improve relations with the United States.

Once more he blamed the "Eisenhower-Nixon administration" for the present state of U.S.-Soviet relations and the failure of the Paris summit conference.

He called again for a special summit session of the United Nations General Assembly in the spring on disarmament and attacked the Western powers as "opponents not only of disarmament but also of control over disarmament."

Gromyko called for "putting in order the structure of the United Nations bodies," a reference to the Soviet demand that Secretary Dag Hammarskjold's control of the UN secretariat be replaced by a Communist-Western neutrality triumvirate.

Points made by Gromyko included:

The Soviet government fully supports Ghana Presi-

CALDOUGH REMANDED

LONDON (Reuters) — Two men were accused in court today of being involved in a $100,000 ($277,000) conspiracy to defraud.

George Frederick Caldough, 32-year-old investment dealer formerly of Vancouver, was remanded in custody until Dec. 20.

Roland Smith, 40-year-old publicity assistant, was remanded on renewed bail until Jan. 10.

They appeared on a warrant accusing them of offences to conspire to defraud within the jurisdiction of the Canadian government.

Caldough was told that if he had two sureties of £5,000 each Dec. 30, he would be allowed bail.

The magistrate rejected his available sureties totalling £3,000 after police said £100,000 was involved in the case.

FISTS FLY AS STRIKES PILE UP IN BELGIUM

BRUSSELS (Reuters)—A fist-fight between Socialist and Roman Catholic legislators broke out in the Lower House of Parliament tonight as deputies debated a mounting wave of strikes against the Belgian government's austerity plans. The fight soon involved nearly all the deputies present.

Meanwhile an anti-austerity strike continued to spread.

SNOW FAIR GROUNDS

reported a 10-inch fall in the Tobermory area at the tip of the Bruce Peninsula.

In the United States, a severe cold wave struck much of the eastern two-thirds and more snow headed across the snow-covered northern sections.

The iciest weather in several years topped temperatures to record lows for the date in some areas. Not much immediate relief was in sight.

The middle west, hit by a heavy snow storm earlier this week, had a bonechilling 24 below zero in Joliet; Ill.; and 23 below zero in International Falls, Minn.

Snow flurries peppered the Ohio Valley southward into Tennessee and northern Georgia.

Some southern city low marks included Tallahassee, Fla., 26; Atlanta, 21; Jacksonville, Fla., 30; Tampa, Fla., 37; Mobile, Ala., 26; Miami, 48.

Below-zero marks were general from the eastern Dakotas into the upper Great Lakes region, northeast Iowa, Illinois, northern Indiana and northwest Ohio. In Chicago, some 40 miles northeast of Joliet, the 11 below reading was the lowest mark in nine years.

A narrow band of driving snow whipped in off neighboring Lake Erie and virtually sealed off metropolitan Buffalo.

The storm closed the New York State Thruway from Buffalo to Batavia and the northbound Niagara Thruway which runs to Niagara Falls.

Greater Buffalo airport canceled all flights as drifts piled onto runways and blowing snow cut visibility.

Up to a foot of snow fell throughout the metropolitan area in 10 hours. Factories and stores in outlying areas remained closed.
